At about 11.45 p.m., the injured person and his family were awakened by shots fired close to his house, and on the following morning a notice signed "Rory of the Hills," was found pinned to a tree opposite his door, threatening him and his brother if they paid their rents. Carrick declined to join the other tenants of Lord Lurgan in refusing to pay rent without 50 per cent. reduction.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
3	6 Dec.	J. F. Ford, J.P. -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	This notice was posted on the door of a house from which a man had been evicted. It stated that any one taking the house or land would be shot.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
4	8 Dec.	Robert Abraham -	Firing into a dwelling.	A shot was fired into the dwelling of the injured person; he had recently paid his rent.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
5	9 Dec.	John and Catherine Mullen.	Firing at the person.	While the injured man and his sister were standing in the street in front of their own house, they were fired at by their brother (James Mullen), the shot did not take effect. The parties all live together, and are disputing about the possession of the house and farm.	James Mullen -	Bailed for trial at next Armagh Assizes.
6	10 Dec.	John Turner -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	The injured person (a process server) received through the post a letter threatening him if he served processes on the townland of Clonlumb. The tenants on this townland hold their farms under a Mr. Bell. They have refused to pay him rent, and he gave them until the 10th December to make up their minds, and threatened legal proceedings if they did not settle by that day. It was anticipated Turner would have received the processes on that day, hence the effort to prevent him serving them.	- - nil - -	- - nil.

COUNTY OF DONEGAL.

RETURN of all AGRARIAN OUTRAGES Reported by the Royal Irish Constabulary in the above-named County, between 1st December 1880 and 31st December 1880, giving Particulars of Crime, Arrests, and Results of Proceedings.

No.	Date of Offence.	Names of Injured Persons.	OFFENCE.		Names of Persons made Amenable.	Result of Proceedings.
			Description.	Short Details.
	1880:
1	2 Nov. -	John Doherty -	Intimidation otherwise.	John Doherty, land bailiff to Mr. Loughrey, J.P., was told by Hugh Friel, in the town of Buncrana, that if he did not give up his position as bailiff he might get his coffin prepared.	Hugh Friel -	Returned for trial to Lifford Spring Assizes.
2	29 Nov. -	John Maxwell and others.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	Five notices were posted up at different places in the townlands of Ardara and Tullyclenve. In the first notice, John Maxwell, bailiff to the Marquis of Conyngham, was told, "If you ask for rents this year, the gun is charged ready to blow your brains in the air, or shoot you through the heart like a dog;" in the other four notices the farmers were informed, "if you do not hold out for Griffiths' valuation, you will be shot the first opportunity."	- - nil - -	- - nil.
3	1 Dec. -	The Farmers generally	- - ditto -	A notice was posted on the wall which surrounds the church at Maonagowan, warning anyone who would pay more than Griffiths' valuation to Mr. Wm. Dunlop.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
4	2 Dec. -	The Farmers generally	- - ditto -	The two notices were posted up at different places in Ballyhoffy. In both notices the farmers of the district were told, "if you pay any rent but Griffiths' valuation, you may have your coffins left by you."	- - nil - -	- - nil.
5	2 Dec. -	Francis Perry -	- - ditto -	Francis Perry, fisherman and farmer, received a threatening letter. Perry had paid his rent.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
6	10 Dec. -	Neal Keeny -	I. - - ditto -	On the night of the 10th December 1880, a stack of corn, the property of the injured man, was tossed, and thereby much injured, and a threatening notice posted on the door of his house. Keeny had made himself unpopular with his neighbours, by volunteering to the bailiff on the estate to distribute some notices among the tenants, in which they were told that no reduction of the rents would be made. He has since returned the notices to the bailiff.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
7			II. Injury to property.
8	10 Dec. -	George Rankin -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	George Rankin, of Ardmore, was told in a letter which he received, that if he did not go out among his neighbours and collect funds for the Land League, he would be killed immediately.	- - nil - -	- - nil.

			Description.	Short Details.
9	11 Dec. -	Daniel Boyle -	Intimidation by an armed party	A party of about 100 men, having white shirts over their other clothing, came to the house of Daniel Boyle, and struck the door a blow which broke one board, and fired three shots outside. He had paid his rent.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
10	12 Dec. -	John M'Dermott	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	John M'Dermott, Carnamuggagh, bailiff to A. J. R. Stewart, esq., D.L., of Ards, received a letter in which he was told, "be reconciled with your God, another year you will never see, as it is decided to perforate your body with shot, or stain the earth with your blood." Griffiths' valuation had been offered by the tenants, but the agent declined to accept, and it was thought that M'Dermott might be employed to serve notices of ejectment for non-payment of rent.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
11	13 Dec. -	William Wray, esq., J.P.	- - ditto -	William Wray, esq., J.P., Oakpark, received a letter threatening him as follows: "if you do not reduce your rents you may get your coffin as soon as you like." A few days prior to the receipt of this letter Mr. Wray told a number of his tenants that he would not reduce their rents.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
12	15 Dec. -	Thomas Bresland	- - ditto -	Thomas Bresland, Knockbrack, bailiff to Sir Samuel Hayes, bart., was told in a letter which he received, "serve no more processes this year; if you do, I will pay you a visit by day or by night." Some of the tenants on the estate have not paid their rents, and they believe that proceedings will be taken against them.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
13	15 Dec. -	W. H. Porter, esq., J.P.	- - ditto -	W. H. Porter, esq., J.P., Ballymacool, agent to Sir Samuel Hayes, was warned in a letter which he received, "not to oppress the tenants."	- - nil - -	- - nil.
14	16 Dec. -	Dominick Mooney	Intimidation otherwise.	Dominick Mooney, driver of the mail car from Falcarragh to Bunbeg, was threatened by Patrick Sharkey, that his ears would be cut off because his father paid his rent.	Patrick Sharkey -	Case dismissed at Bunbeg Petty Sessions, 31st January 1881.
15	16 Dec. -	John M'Intyre -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notice.	John M'Intyre, Sessiahkilty, was told in a letter which he received, if you value your life and property, do not pay more than Griffiths' valuation. Mr. M'Intyre, whose rent is over Griffiths' valuation, made no secret of his determination to pay his landlord at the proper time.	- - nil -	- - nil.

16	18 Dec.	William Wray, esq., J.P.	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	William Wray, esq., J.P., Oakpark, received a letter telling him that "if a regiment of soldiers was at your back you will be shot if you do not settle with your tenants, and do as they desire." This is the second letter Mr. Wray received. See No. 11.	nil	nil.
17	10 Dec.	Michael Monagle	ditto	Michael Monagle, Tullymore, received a letter directing him to give up Tommy Doherty's farm, and that if he failed to do so "you may expect a visit from a force that knows how to deal with you." Monagle holds the farm from which Doherty was evicted 20 years ago, and has paid his rent (which is 3*s.* over Griffiths' valuation) for the present year.	nil	nil.
18	10 Dec.	The Farmers of Killymard.	ditto	A notice was posted near the Roman Catholic church at Killymard, calling on the tenants "to hold their rents, and the landlords must give in," and warning them that "a traitor to the cause would remember the consequences" The tenants had been warned to meet the agent and pay their rents.	nil	nil.
19	20 Dec.	John Kerrigan	ditto	John Kerrigan, Knockashangan, near Belleek, having taken a farm from George Clarke, received a letter warning him as follows:—"If you do not retract your bargain with George Clarke, your life is not worth a blade of grass. You land-grabber, you went contrary to the rules of the Land League." George Clarke refused to join the Land League; and it is believed the people are anxious to see Kerrigan's farm thrown on Clarke's hands.	nil	nil.
20	29 Dec.	Thomas Stewart	Assaults on bailiffs and process servers.	Thomas Stewart, bailiff to Mr. Miller, J.P., while serving ejectment processes, accompanied by the police, was hooted by a crowd that assembled on the blowing of a horn. Stewart had also offered the tenants at same time an abatement of 15 per cent. On going into a house to serve a process, Stewart was assaulted by the accused, who was at once arrested by the police.	Patrick Diver	Patrick Diver pleaded guilty at Lifford Second Sessions, 26th January 1881, and was sentenced to three weeks imprisonment with hard labour for the assault on Thomas Stewart.

1	24 Nov.	Michael Gilbane -	Intimidation otherwise.	At 10 p.m. three men, dressed in women's clothes, and with cloths on their faces, knocked at Gilbane's house. He got up and opened the door; they took him outside the door; one presented something like a blunderbuss at his breast, and another held a pistol in his hand. The spokesman of the party then warned Gilbane to give up herding for Mr. Park. About six years ago two tenants were evicted from this farm, which is now on the landlord's hands. (See No. 8.)	- - nil - -	- - nil.
2	25 Nov.	Mrs. O'Beirne -	Taking and holding forcible possession.	Bridget Rowley was evicted from her house and farm on 17th February 1879, for non-payment of rent. She re-entered it on 25th November 1880, and refused to leave when called on to do so by the constabulary on 30th November. She is still in possession	Bridget Rowley -	Returned for trial at Spring Assizes.
			I.
3	27 Nov.	Thomas Rodgers	Administering an unlawful oath.	Three men, armed with rifles and bayonets fixed, and undisguised, visited Rodgers' house about 10.30 p.m., and when he opened the door one of them stabbed him in the hand with a sword bayonet, forced him on his knees, and by threats of shooting, compelled him to swear that he would live peaceably with his neighbours. Rodgers had recently succeeded in a lawsuit with a neighbour about a turf bank, and the decision had not been carried out.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
			II.
4	27 Nov.	- - ditto -	Intimidation otherwise.
5	27 Nov.	Robert Hoops -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	A notice was posted on a tree in the Rev. Mr. Hoops' demesne, threatening his son with violence if he continued to act as he had done as land agent. He had some difference with his employer's tenants in March last, and then received a threatening letter.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
6	28 Nov.	Dr. Nash - -	Intimidation by threatening letters or notices.	A notice was posted at Drumkeeran, warning people not to speak to, work for, or call upon Dr. Nash for medical aid, because he had paid his rent.	- - nil - -	- nil.
7	29 Nov.	Michael Gilbane	Intimidation otherwise.	Three men, dressed in women's clothes, and with cloths on their faces, visited Gilbane's house. One of them asked had he given up herding yet for Mr. Park; he replied that he had not, but that he would do so next day, and he did so. (See No. 1.) About six years ago two tenants were evicted from the farm, which is now on the landlords' hands.	- - nil - -	- - nil.
